DETAILED ACTION

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 126-138, 150-164, drawn to an apparatus for generating a map of a gemstone, classified in class 219, subclass 121.83.
 - II. Claims 139-149, 165-176, drawn to a method of laser marking a gemstone that includes coating, classified in class 219, subclass 121.69.
 - III. Claims 177-201, drawn to a laser marking unit with focus control, classified in class 219, subclass 121.73.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Invention II (a method of laser marking) and Invention I (an apparatus for generating a map of a gemstone) are related as process and apparatus for its practice.

The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus for generating a map of a gemstone does not require the gemstone to be coated.

3. Invention II (a method of laser marking) and Invention III (a laser marking unit with focus control) are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the laser marking unit does require the gemstone to be coated.

4. Invention I (an apparatus for generating a map of a gemstone) and Invention III (a laser marking unit with focus control) are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as laser cutting. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
